Dear Mr. Barreira:

This is in reply to your letter concerning transfer of assets by community spouses. You advised us that it is the position of the Division of Medical Assistance (DMA) that the post-eligibility transfer made by community spouses causes Medicaid disqualification. Thus, you requested that we notify DMA of its need to come into compliance with Federal law.

Under the transfer of assets provisions in §1917(c) of the Social Security Act (the Act), transfers between spouses are exempt from any transfer penalty. Under the spousal impoverishment provisions of §1924 of the Act, once eligibility is determined, the resources of the community spouse are no longer considered available to the institutionalized spouse. Thus, after the month in which an institutionalized spouse is determined eligible for Medicaid, any resources belonging to the community spouse are solely the property of that spouse. That is, the community spouse can do whatever he or she wants to with them.

We will be writing a letter to Mark F. Reynolds, Acting Commissioner, DMA, advising him that State policy needs to be revised to be consistent with Federal requirements. We appreciate your interest in the Medicaid program and for bringing this matter to our attention.

Please contact Allen Bryan if you have any questions. He can be reached at (617) 565-1246.

Sincerely yours,

Ronald Preston
Associate Regional Administrator
